

LANJIA LODGE CLASSIC PACKAGE AND ACTIVITIES

Lanjia Lodge Classic Package Overview:

The awarding winning Lanjia lodge is located on a lush hillside of a small village of Hmong and Lahu hill tribes. The lodge works with the Population Development Association to help to improve a quality of life of the hill tribe villagers through several projects such as the community bank and employment.

Guests will stay overnight in the lodge, overlooking a stunning view of the Mekong river and Laos. The guest cottage is inspired by local architecture with thatched roof and hand-woven bamboo wall panels. It is simple, environmentally friendly and comfortable with modern amenities.

The village tour, which is led by a local guide, includes a visit to the shaman's house to learn about Lahu and Hmong culture. Guests will also enjoy traditional dance at night. In this package, guests will be served breakfast and dinner.

Exciting and enjoyable activities are available as an extension to the package, including trekking, Mekong river cruise on a long tail boat, batik making class and Golden Triangle tour.
